February/March 2023 Journey Scholarship Application

Thank you for your interest in our February/March 2023 Tree of Life Journey. We have had many requests for scholarship support this year and want to make every effort to provide help where we can. Priority is generally given to students and faith leaders, however, all with a financial need and an aim to learn are welcome to apply. It is our goal to provide support to those who will return with a desire to share what they have learned. Please complete the information below and email completed application to David Good at davidwgood@fccol.org. Use additional pages as needed.

Applications must be received by December 1, 2022.

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____
